THE FALCON

Presented By The Students of
West Henderson High School
Route 5
Hendersonville, North Carolina

FOREWORD

As we look back through the years, and as we grow older, we become more aware of what our Alma Mater means to us. We, the FALCON Staff of 1964, hope that we have given to you a memento in pictures of the most enjoyable times that we, as seniors, have had.

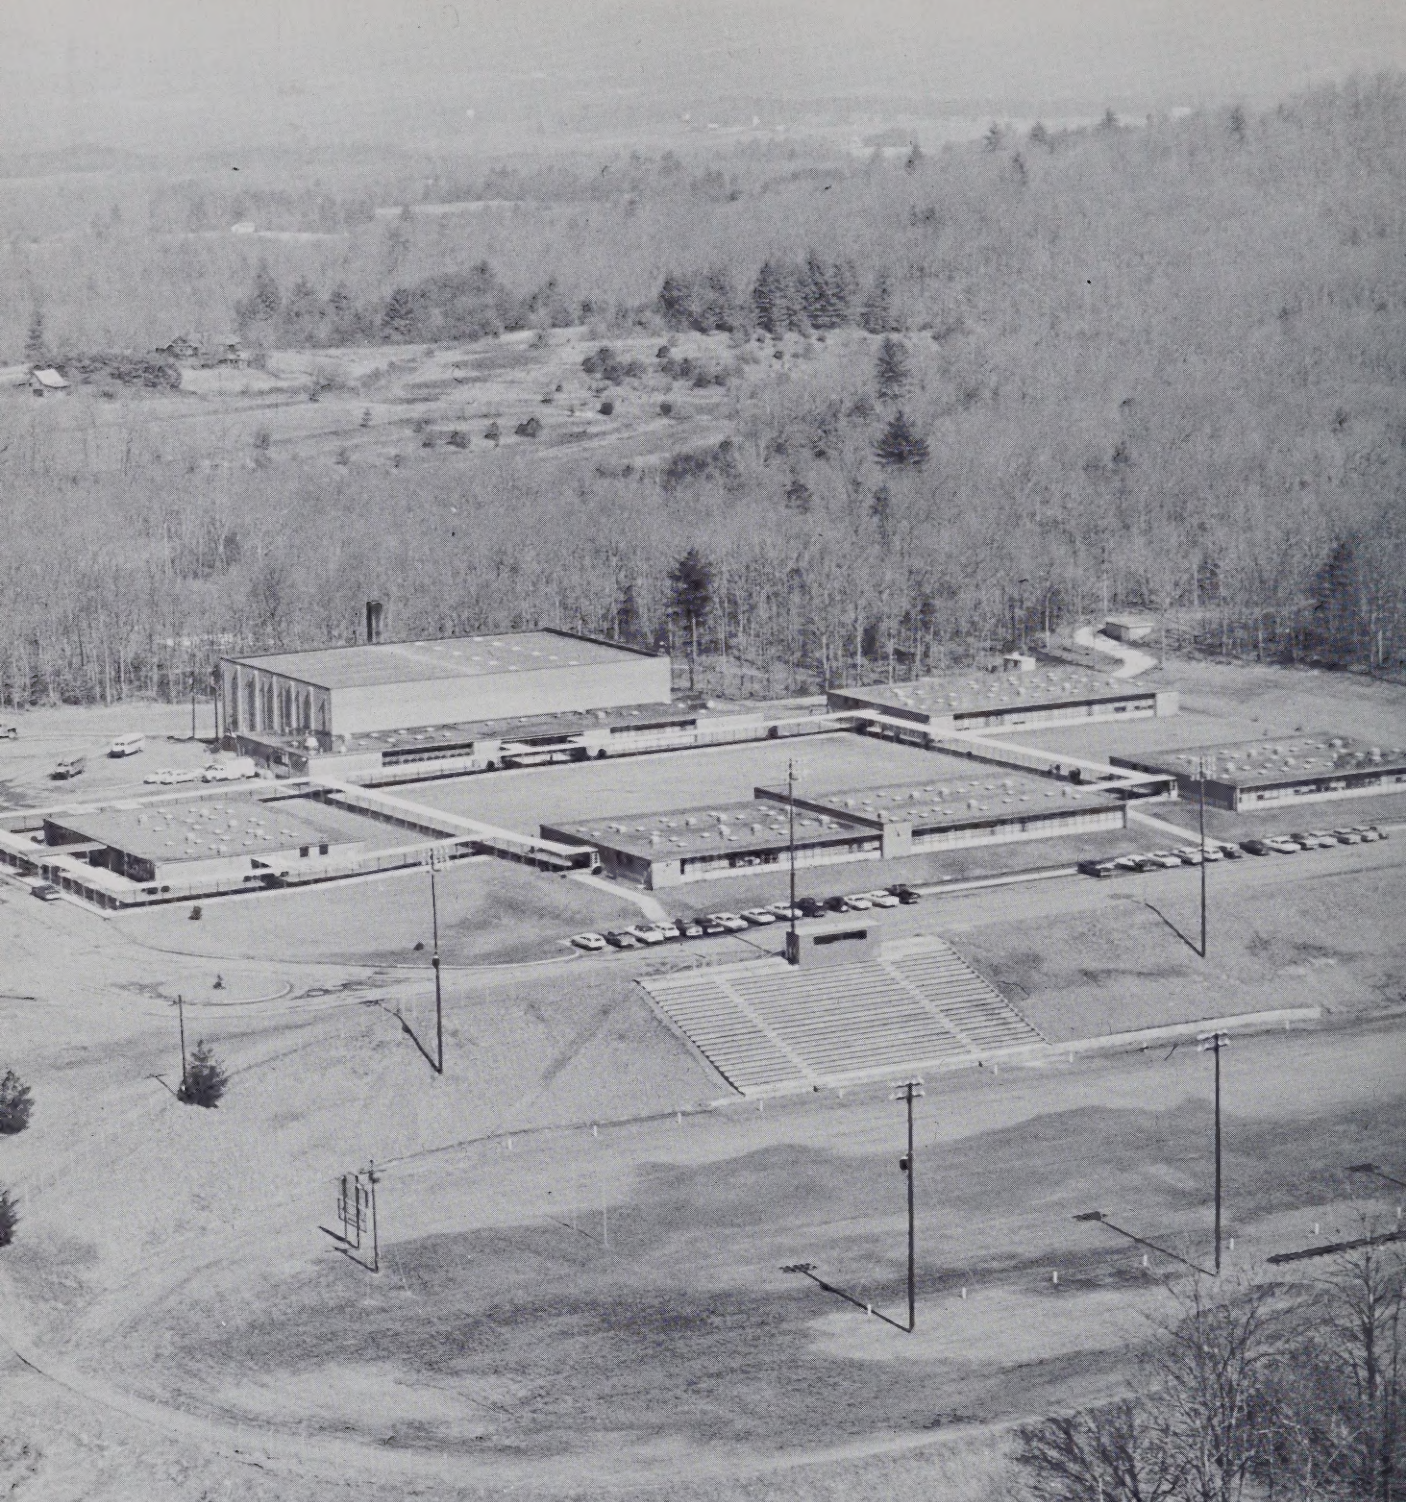

May this annual be a lasting reminder of the noble characteristics of the people within these pages and a source of entertainment and enjoyment through the years.

ALMA MATER

To thee our Alma Mater
We pledge our love so true.
We dedicate our colors
The red and white and blue.
In these our halls of learning
True knowledge you impart.
May you remain forever
Within our heart.

Thou art a light to guide us.
A beacon always strong.
Our source of inspiration
To teach us right from wrong.
Thy loyal sons and daughters
Forever we shall be.
Devoted always to thy cause
In trust and loyalty.

Miss Bessie Jordan

DEDICATION

Miss Willie Lou Jordan

To two whose lives have been dedicated to the teaching profession and who have given freely of their time and talents to enrich our educational system, we, the Senior Class dedicate this 1964 edition of the FALCON.

Miss Bessie Jordan was devoted to teaching for thirty-five years, beginning her career in 1906 at the Rugby School in Henderson County. At this time, she received a salary of only $20 per month. She served in Henderson County Schools for almost thirty years. These schools included Mills River, Edneyville, Etowah, and Hendersonville. In 1924, Miss Jordan became principal of Mills River School and in 1927 went to Edneyville to serve as its principal.

Miss Willie Lou Jordan has dedicated forty-one years of her life to teaching, and in all but three of these she has been in Henderson County. She has taught in Mills River, Edneyville, and West Henderson. When West Henderson High School was built, Miss Jordan became its first librarian.

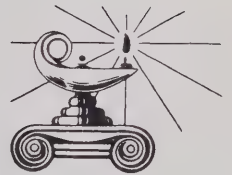

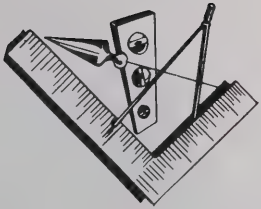

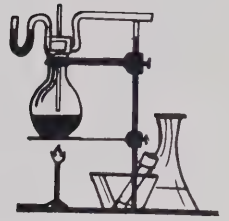

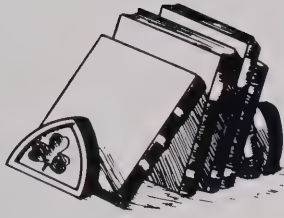

To Miss Bessie Jordan and Miss Willie Lou Jordan we happily dedicate this edition of the FALCON.

A TRIBUTE

As we look back at our high school experiences, we are conscious of our appreciation to one who has guided our footsteps through our first three years. Now, we, the first graduating class of West Henderson High School wish to say "thank-you" to Mr. Glenn C. Marlow. Yes, "thank-you" for sticking by our side and giving us that indispensable pat on the back through both our losses and victories; "thank-you" for helping us overcome the little problems that seemed so enormous to us; and, most of all, "thank-you" for your support.

For his guidance through our Senior year, we would like to express our appreciation to Mr. Odell E. Griffin. To him we say, "Welcome to West High. We as a student body are behind you."

OUR PRINCIPAL

Dear Seniors:

As you pause to look back over these past four years at West High, let it be with pardonable pride for your many hours of consecrated study.

Although this marks the end of a high school career, it is the beginning of a new adventure. Some of you will continue your education on a higher level to further enrich your lives as you work toward new goals and achievements. To others, it will mean finding your place as an individual citizen dedicating your labor to a vocation of your own choosing.

The many hours which have been spent in the making of "The Falcon" have not been in vain. It is a storehouse of memories arranged to inspire you to perform to the best of your ability, and to create pride in your alma mater.

As your memories of West High fade into the background of your lives to become silhouettes of your youthful experiences, may you attain high ideals and honor in your future role in this great land of ours.

JUNIOR CLASS ACTIVITIES

The Junior Class has enthusiastically sponsored a number of projects this year. In September they sold five hundred eighty-seven magazine subscriptions. The proceeds of this venture paid for the annual Junior-Senior banquet. The seniors congratulate David Fowler and Barbara Kiser who were the two highest salesmen.

The class presented the Christmas Dance, Winter Wonderland, both as a social activity and as a method to raise funds to help furnish the senior activity room with bridge tables and chairs.

The Valentine dance, "Cupid Plays Host," was sponsored by the class mainly as a social function for the students of West High.

The class eagerly began in February discussing plans for the Junior-Senior banquet which was held in May.

FFA

Mr. Joe Francis

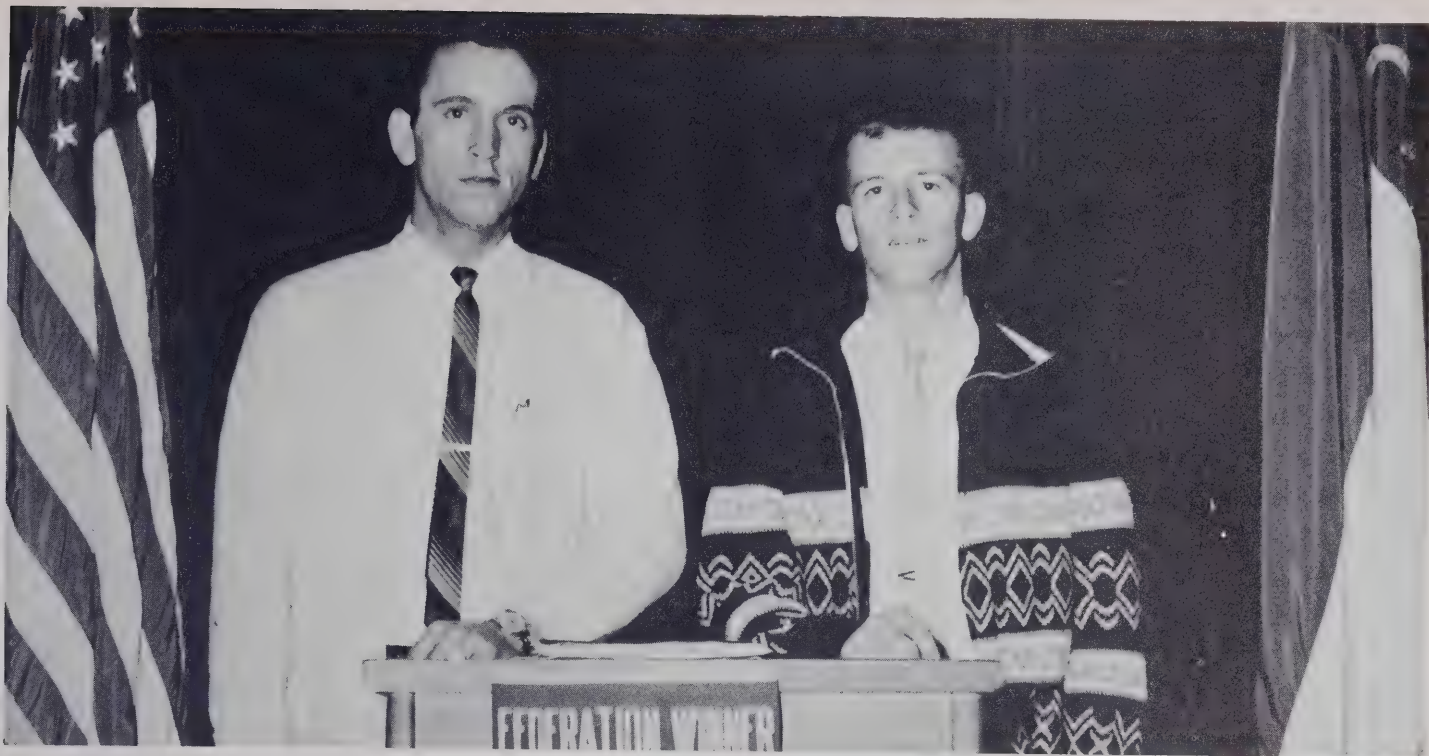

Mr. John Hollamon

"We learn best by doing"--that is the concept on which land judging is based. It is a simple, effective aid for teaching soil appreciation, an awareness of land capability, and wise and profitable land use.

Methods of teaching soil conservation and improvement are illustrated in land judging contests. The objective is to train larger numbers of people about the care of the land in order that they will learn how to apply conservation and improvement practices on their own land and to appreciate the importance of proper land care in their lives.

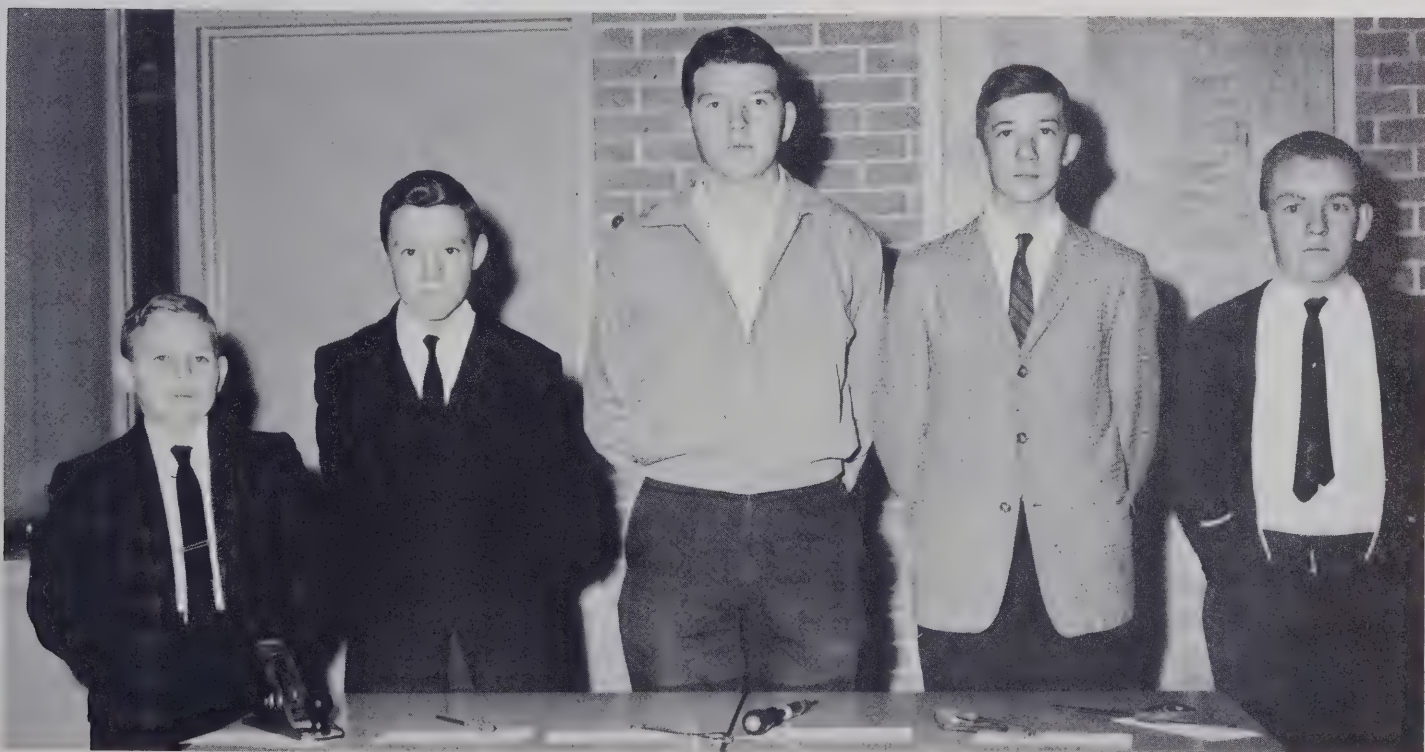

PUBLIC SPEAKING

The FFA Public Speaking Contest is designed to develop rural and agricultural leadership by providing for member participation in agricultural public speaking activities and stimulating interest along these lines.

The preliminary contests are of local, sectional, state, sub-regional, and national character. David Byrd and Thaylon Stewart are semi-finalists in the public speaking contest.

TOOL IDENTIFICATION

These boys were the top participants in tool identification at West Henderson this year. They placed first in the Pisgah Federation Contest and will represent West in the state contest, which will be held at the annual FFA Convention in Raleigh during the summer. This activity is limited to first year agriculture students. Team members are: LEFT TO RIGHT: Randall Lance, Tommy Bryson, Grover Jackson, Tommy Leroy, and Joe Gosnell.

HOMEMAKER OF TOMORROW

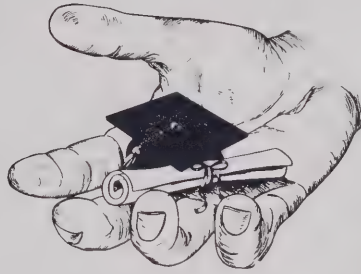

Sandra Merrill has been named "Homemaker of Tomorrow" from West High. She was winner of the Betty Crocker written examination in homemaking knowledge and attitudes and in academic achievement as it is related to living problems.

She was among approximately 484,000 girls in more than 14,000 schools in the 50 states to take this examination. Her paper was entered in competition for "State Homemaker of Tomorrow" and she placed among the ten highest rating girls in North Carolina.

FHA

Becky Taylor, Sharyn Moffitt, Mary Glenn, Sandra Merrill, Judy Cabe, and Juanell Gash should have special recognition for the work they have done while earning their State Homemaker Degrees, which were awarded at the State Convention. These girls have been working for F.H.A. since their first year in high school, and they have completed many projects to carry out the purpose of the F.H.A. organization. Because of their work, they have become better home and community members and have completed projects for the betterment of their state and nation.

This center has become a favorite spot for Seniors. Here they can forget their books and relax in their spare time. Only those Seniors who maintain an acceptable scholastic average and citizenship rating are admitted to the recreation center. The Seniors of West High are very proud of their new privilege and under-classmen look forward to enjoying it in future years.
